

2023 System Conservation Pilot Program Update

Colorado River Authority of Utah Board Meeting
Lily Bosworth, EIT, Staff Engineer

April 20, 2023
ST GEORGE, UTAH

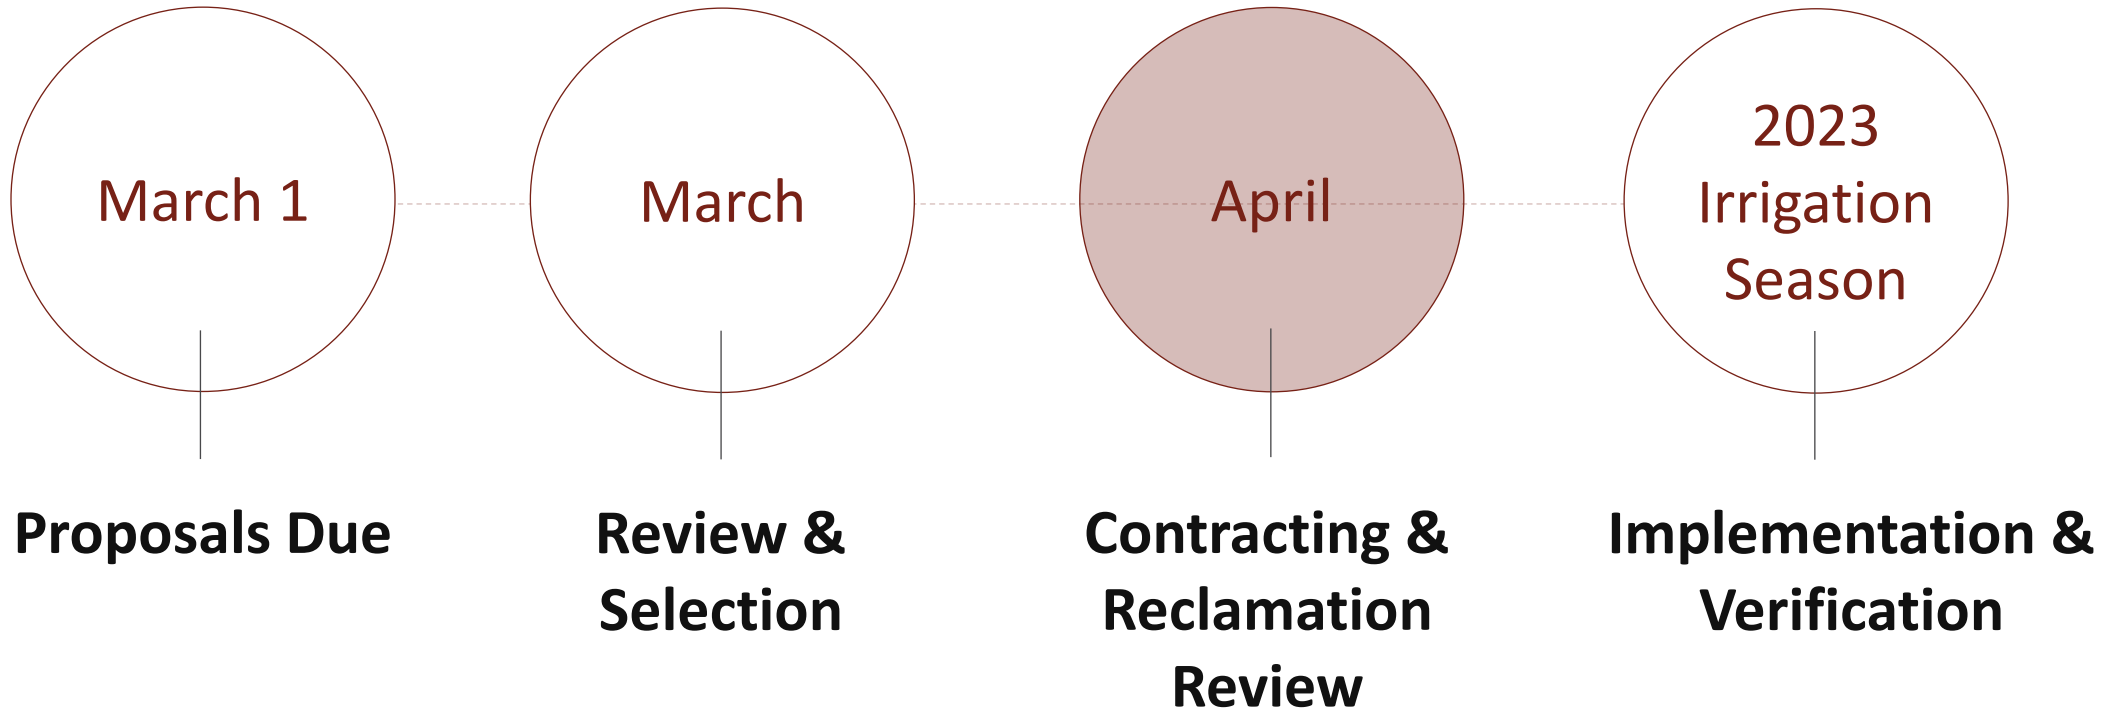

What is SCPP 2023?

- An opportunity for Temporary, Voluntary, and Compensated consumptive water use reduction in the Upper Colorado River Basin.
- Open to municipal, industrial, and agricultural water users.
- Federally funded, administered by UCRC

Timeline

Upper Basin Selected Projects

Proposals by State:	Selected
Utah	21
Colorado	29
Wyoming*	22
New Mexico	1

Total:	Selected
Selected Projects	73
Conserved Volume (Acre-Feet)	38,798
Cost	16,827,794
Unweighted Average Price Per Acre-Foot	$434

*Includes project with acreage in both Wyoming and Colorado

Updated April 20th, 2023

Utah Proposals

Proposal:	Submitted	Selected
Type	Ag, Municipal, Industrial	Ag, Municipal, Industrial
Number	24	21
Size (AF)	6 – 9,094	15 – 9,094
Total Volume (AF)	15,589	14,991
Total Expense	$5,802,772	$5612,291
Weighted Average Price Per Acre-Foot	N/A	$375

Updated April 20, 2023

Utah Selected Project Types

Project Type	Number of Projects	Conserved Volume (Acre-Feet)
Fallow Alfalfa - Commodity	9	10,821
Fallow Alfalfa – Cow-Calf Operation	4	1,504
Crop Switch & Split-Season Fallow	2	399
Storage/Lease	6	2,267
Total	21	14,991

Updated April 20, 2023

Resources, Questions

Visit the Authority website for resources.

Contact Lily Bosworth with questions.

lbosworth@utah.gov | (801) 824-9037

cra-utah.org/resources/scpp

@AuthorityUT

@AmyHaasColoRivr

